

GARDEN COURT ANTIQUES
San Francisco, California
415 355-1690

A Provincial Scottish Mahogany Miniature Sideboard, Early 19th Century.

List: $1,550

A Provincial Scottish mahogany miniature sideboard, early 19th Century. a small scale cabinet maker's model with five working drawers and two working cabinet raised on ball feet. French polished.

height: 12 in. 30.5 cm., width: 17 in. 43 cm., depth: 6.5 in. 16.5cm.

"miniature furniture was used as advertismments in shop windows of furniture makers and retailers. A potential purchaser could examine the piece and discuss extra cost details, such as further inlays or choice of woods such as oak, walnut or mahogany. Equally important was the travelling retailer going to the small town or country house where the customer or patron could be shown a miniature example, the viewing of a three dimensional example being more effective than only sketches or drawings." 1. [Miniature Furniture, Why?, Andrew Jenkins. Antiques & Fine Arts Magazine.]

- Country: Scotland
- Period: Early 19th Century
- Materials: Mahogany
- Height: 30.5 cm., height: 12 in.
- Length: 17 in., 43 cm.
- Depth: 16.5cm., 6.5 in.
- Condition: Very good
- Condition note: Restorations; French polish.